The yearbook staff of Buena Vista High makes this section for students who will be the nations future teachers, doctors, nurses, secretaries, and technicians. Everyone of you has accomplished something that he is proud of.

When our Senior class leaves, we want them to look through this book and remember their teachers, friends, and classes.

Yes, all of us can look at this yearbook and feel proud because it is our symbol of all the memorable moments in our school life.

The "Activities" section covers everything from clubs to Playnights. The student Council is the law-making body of the students at Buena Vista High School, it's activities vary from selling candy to sending exchange students. During this year we have seen the formation of new clubs such as the Pep Club, Medical Careers Club, and Future Teachers. This was a year of firsts: our senior class, and senior class play, and our first Knights' Lady.

Our competition in the various sports is representative of our school spirit. At the left is a typical scene as we cheer on the Knights of Buena Vista to victory. Spurred on by the shouts of its loyal supporters, our mighty Knights perform to the best of their abilities. Win or lose, our fans are on hand to supply the extra enthusiasm for a victory. The following pages are devoted to our teams and their coaches.

They're off and running

Coach Al Quick and his Knights posted an impressive string of victories during his first season with Buena Vista. The fans will long remember the excitment of the game, the freezing temperatures, and the sore throats that were a result of all that cheering.

"Let's go, let's go, let's really go."

Energy and enthusiasm are essential ingredients in becoming a Buena Vista cheerleader. They, with their sponsor Miss Joan Hopkins, have provided that extra spark needed to cheer their teams on to victory. They have displayed the finest behavior both in victory and defeat. Their work combined with that of the fans have made them an important part of school life. Each girl plays the part of a goodwill ambassador to every school we meet. The students of Buena Vista High School have good reason to be proud of the work they have done and of the fine reputation they have helped to build.

It is with the cooperation and backing of our patrons that the staff of Vista Visions is able to present this yearbook. The patrons add to the school spirit and stand ready to help both students and alumni. It is our hope that the students of Buena Vista, out of appreciation for their generousity and cooperation, will remember and patronize them. They stand ready with products and services for the whole community.

The men and women of Saginaw Steering Gear extend congratulations to the members of the first Buena Vista High School graduates — the class of 1962.

We sincerely hope that each of you will realize your fondest dreams and aspirations as you open the next chapter in your lives. HONESTY, SINCERITY, and RELIABILITY are three cornerstones on which you can build a successful life— just as they have served as the foundations on which we have built a successful business.

Don,
Our third baseman for next year, I hope. But
Nalley's ahead of you.
Try hard for 2nd maybe.
D. Skelly D.
